

Industrial Painter – Full Time

Successful and fast paced architectural metalwork company in the Philadelphia area is seeking a full-time experienced Industrial Painter to paint architectural metalwork.

Candidate must possess the following skills:

Minimum 3 years of painting experience in an industrial or autobody environment.

Demonstrated knowledge of overall painting process (painting techniques, formulas, applications, etc).

Experience painting architectural metalwork (railings, stairways, gates and misc. metal custom applications) is a plus.

Experience applying special finishes (i.e. patina) or polishing.

Ability to work independently with minimal supervision and effectively communicate to off-site members of supervisory team.

Completion of college/vocational study or technical training pertaining to automotive and/or industrial painting certification.

A valid driver's license and good clean driving record is required

Job Duties:

Prepare material for painting by washing, blowing off dust or debris and removing metal spatter.

Primer and spray material with electrostatic spray equipment or conventional methods using side-to side and up and down motions

Maintains and troubleshoots painting equipment to ensure proper operations.

Conducts quality inspections and prepares finished material for delivery.

Maintains clean and fully functional paint room area and performs regular safety checks on personal protective equipment and painting equipment.

Other duties as required

We offer:

Medical, Rx, and Vision Benefits

Paid vacation & holidays

Matching Retirement Savings Program

Bonus Program

Contact Paola Versano via e-mail @ paola@benfabrailings.com

Visit www.benfabrailings.com .